A belligerent Jap, filled with sake and armed with a carving knife attempted to emulate Admiral Togo last evening on River street. Owing to the sake mist before his eyes he fell upon a fellow Jap instead of an enemy, but attempted to put him out of commission with the knife. Police clerk Baker and Officer Frank Kane disarmed the man and took him to the police station.

C. A. Griscom, head of the great international shipping trust, who was a through passenger yesterday on the Siberia for the Orient, and his party were entertained by Col. George W. Macfarlane yesterday, lunching with him at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, after which a visit was made to the aquarium. Mr. Griscom was very much interested in and enthusiastic over the wonderful coloring of the fishes, and made the remark as he left the place that the visit to the aquarium was alone worth making the trip to Hawaii. By invitation of Mr. B. F. Dillingham, the Griscom party was taken to Ewa mill and plantation by special train on the O. R. & L. Co. A visit to the Pali was made in the forenoon and the party also enjoyed surfing and bathing at Waikiki beach.

CAVALRY FOR HAWAII.

ST. PAUL, May 24.—A telegram was received at Army headquarters today from the War Department stating that Troops G and H, Third Cavalry, recently ordered to Fort Snelling, Minn., from Fort Apache, A. T., will not come to St. Paul, but will be sent at once to Honolulu, Hawaii, for station.
